

CENTER FOR STUDIES IN DEMOGRAPHY AND ECOLOGY

2005 Fall Welcome Reception Quiz

How well do you know the Center for the Studies in Demography and Ecology?

Submit your answers to the main office (206 Raitt) for the chance to win an exciting prize.

1. Demography and population studies began at the University of Washington in the 1920's when these two people served on the faculty:
 - a) William Alexander Abbott and Lou Costello
 - b) James Watson and Francis Crick
 - c) Roderick McKenzie and William F. Ogburn
2. What services are available to demographers through CSDE? (check all that apply)
 - Access to remote terminal server computing
 - Classes in statistical software (R, SAS, etc)
 - Consultation on the use of biomarkers
 - Article deliver & TOC alerts
 - Dry cleaning
 - Grant preparation
 - Web design
 - Catering
 - Help with datasets
 - Access to the New York Times and coffee in the Information Center
3. When did CSDE become an independent unit?
 - 1948
 - 1967
 - 2000
 - 2002
4. How many population fellows does CSDE currently support?
5. Can you match the following affiliates to their research grants?

Steve Goodreau	Effects of migration and industrialization on families in Panzihuhua, China
Denise Cloutier-Fisher	A New database for the study of southern lynchings
Stevan Harrell	Child gender and family behavior
Shelly Lundberg	Geographic Data for the Georgia Basin Puget Sound International Air Shed
Stewart Tolnay	Assessing the population-level impact of recency on the African HIV epidemic
