COMBINATION OF
OUR FOUR SESSIONS

This Intro to Data Management Series is designed to help research staff and students develop skills with methodologies, data platforms, and data sets commonly used by research teams at the University of Washington and beyond. In this Series, participants will be introduced to a framework for data management and several tools and analysis techniques used to answer research questions. The series is suited to masters- and PhD-level students at the University of Washington with some exposure to health research in a local or global context.

Registration is on a first come, first serve basis.
