35TH ANNUAL MEETING American Real Estate Society

APRIL 9–13, 2019

JW Marriott Camelback Inn, Paradise Valley, Arizona

The American Real Estate Society (ARES) Annual Meeting provides a global forum for academics, industry researchers and policy makers to discuss issues across all areas of relevance to real estate. The meeting contains a mixture of paper sessions and panels, while the plenary Critical Issues Seminar provides an opportunity to consider key topical issues and is organized in association with major professional associations.

INVITATION TO SUBMIT PAPERS

Scholars and professionals are invited to submit papers in the following research areas: Appraisal/Valuation; Asset & Property Management; Big Data; Brokerage; Corporate Real Estate; Cycles & Forecasting; Development; Education; Financial Engineering; Geo-Spatial Analysis; Housing Economics & Policy; International Real Estate; Investment Strategy & Portfolio Management; Mortgage Markets & Debt Products; Public Policy; REITs; Real Estate Finance; Sector Market Analysis; Sustainability & Green Buildings; Technology & Proptech; Urban Economics; Urban Planning & Regeneration

Paper submissions should be made by November 15, 2018.

DOCTORAL STUDENTS will have the opportunity to present their work in a series of dedicated and specialist sessions, which are supported by the James R. Webb Foundation.

THE JW MARRIOTT CAMELBACK INN is a mountain desert resort in the Sonoran Desert, only nine miles from Phoenix Sky Harbor International Airport (PHX). The resort has an award winning spa, two pools, a variety of dining options and two championship golf courses. Camelback Mountain and Mummy Mountain, as well as the Scottsdale Arts and Entertainment Districts are close by. The resort is also only a four-hour drive from one of the world's greatest natural wonders, the Grand Canyon and only two hours away from breathtaking Sedona and Oak Creek Canyon. Two hours to the south is Tucson and all of the attractions of Southern Arizona.
