

SPRING 2019

LARCH 598 Seminar: Urban@UW Current Topics in Urban Research

1 Credit | Tuesdays 4:30-5:30pm
Meets at Simpson Center, CMU 202

This seminar is an opportunity to highlight and share the urban-oriented research of UW faculty and students. Each week will feature an ongoing research project that tackles a significant urban challenge or opportunity presented by the leading faculty and students. Participation in the discussions following each presentation will be the primary mode of learning. A brief reflection will be required following each session.

This seminar is organized by Urban@UW and led by Professor Thaisa Way, Landscape architecture, CBE

Urban@UW