

An evening of reflection on the life and activism of AYŞENUR EZGI EYGI

Ayşenur Ezgi Eygi. Photo courtesy of the Eygi family

Ayşenur Ezgi Eygi, a graduate in psychology and Middle Eastern Languages and Cultures at the University of Washington, was a lifelong human rights activist and community organizer. She was killed by the Israeli military on Sept. 6 at a demonstration in the Occupied West Bank. Join us for moderated discussions with faculty and guest speakers and a music performance interlude.

Featuring speakers Cindy Corrie, Craig Corrie, Hamid Ali, Juliette Majid, Özden Benette and Samah Park Imtiaz

Moderated by Aria Fani and Rawan Arar, Faculty Council of the Middle East Center at the University of Washington

Music performance by George Kassis, Hanady Kader, and Hanna Eady

FRIDAY, OCT. 25, 2024
IN-PERSON | 7-9 P.M.
KANE HALL 130
UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON
SEATTLE, WA 98105

This event is free and open to the public.

